AT THE MGA FALL CONFERENCE

There's no better way to support MGA than to donate an item or an experience to the Silent Auction at this year's Fall Conference at Shanty Creek Resort. By donating something of value you're contributing to the Association, contributing to the winning bidder's enjoyment, and contributing to the festive atmosphere at one of the most exciting events of the conference.

Vacation trips, resort getaways, college and pro sports tickets, concert and special event tickets, sports memorabilia, visual art, dining certificates, gourmet foods and home chef accessories, fine wines and spirits, theme baskets – all are popular items with MGA members. Even valuable logo items and premiums, or your company's product(s) or gift cards. If people want it, it qualifies!

Maybe you have something really special that could be the featured attraction in this year's auction? If you think so, or want some ideas, let's talk. Past auctions have included Alaskan and Caribbean cruise vacations as well as trips to France, Napa Valley, Disney World, and Las Vegas. Year in and year out, MGA's silent auction is much-anticipated and one of the best. Everyone at the conference attends the auction; it's great exposure for your donation, your support of the food industry, the Association and its members.

If you plan on contributing an item(s) do it soon. Donated items can be accepted at any time during the summer and stored by MGA until September. Do it today and scratch it off your to-do list!
