

Michigan Grocers Silent Auction

Monday, Sept. 13 • 6-7:30 pm • Mackinac Island's Grand Hotel

Now is the perfect time to decide how you will support this year's Michigan Grocers Association silent auction. Decide what to donate today and scratch it off your to-do list – and there's no better way to support MGA!

Year in and year out, the silent auction is a much-anticipated event at the Michigan Grocers annual conference and 2010 is no exception – everyone participates and will recognize your support.

Donated items can be accepted at any time during the summer and stored by MGA until September. Vacation trips, resort getaways, college & pro sports tickets, concert & special event tickets, sports memorabilia, framed art, dining certificates, gourmet foods and home chef accessories, fine wines and spirits – all are popular items with MGA members. Even valuable logo items and premiums, or your company's product(s) or gift cards. If people want it, it qualifies!

Maybe you have something really special that could be the featured attraction in this year's auction? If you think so, or want some ideas, let's talk. Past auctions have included Alaskan and Caribbean cruise vacations, Disney World and Las Vegas trips, and even international travel.

Unless designated otherwise, proceeds from the auction are used to further the government relations agenda of the Association. Check the box below to designate your gift to benefit the 501(c)(3) Michigan Grocers Foundation (Federal ID #38-3417266) if you prefer. You'll be supporting the Paul M. Felice Memorial Scholarship Program and may qualify for a valuable tax benefit. Gifts and donations to the Foundation are generally deductible for federal income tax purposes, subject to certain limits. Consult your tax advisor for further information.
